Article V
Elected Committees of the Faculty

Sec. 3.1. There shall be an Educational Policy Committee. Its voting members shall consist of nine members of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, one representative each from the schools of Education and Business, three students, and the Dean of Undergraduate Studies ex officio; non-voting advisory members shall include the Registrar, the Director of Academic Advising, and a representative of the Dean of University Libraries. The members of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences shall be elected for terms of three years, three terms expiring annually. The students shall be selected by an agency designated by the student body and must be certified by the Dean of the Faculty. The Faculty shall elect the chair of the Educational Policy Committee annually after the election of new members; that chair will be a member of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. A quorum composed of six voting members from the Faculty of Arts and Sciences shall be necessary when deciding upon recommendations regarding educational policy.

Sec. 3.2. The Educational Policy Committee shall conduct a continuing study of the undergraduate educational program, regularly reviewing the educational policies and procedures of the Faculty. It shall review all recommendations and requests for changes in the undergraduate curriculum. It shall bring proposals involving changes in educational policy before the Faculty, together with its recommendations for action, but shall have authority to approve or disapprove any changes in the curriculum which do not alter existing policy.

Sec. 3.3. In performing its duties the Educational Policy Committee shall be empowered to call upon any member or group of the Faculty for advice and assistance.
