

William and Mary Marshall-Wythe School of Law
Excerpt from Bylaws of the School of Law:

Article VI, Section 2. The duties of the Curriculum Committee shall be to review regularly the general educational policy of the Law School, insofar as it concerns curricular matters, and to make recommendations to the Faculty entitled to vote.

The Curriculum Committee has five members. Three members are elected for three-year staggered terms by the faculty. The dean appoints two additional members, each of whom serves a one-year term (not staggered).
